SAN DIEGO INDUSTRY LIAISON GROUP

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the San Diego Industry Liaison Group is to promote equal employment opportunity (EEO) and provide leadership in developing and administering affirmative action programs (AAP).

PURPOSE

- A formal link with the U.S. Department of Labor.
- Access to program updates and policy changes.
- Avenue for input to DOL policy makers.
- Provide programs, professional enrichment and networking opportunities to ILG members and the federal contractor community.
- Establish and strengthen partnerships with federal agencies: OFCCP and EEOC.
- Provide nationwide networking by collaborating with the National Industry Liaison Group (NILG) board. There are more than 40 ILG chapters between six regions in various U.S. cities.

HISTORY

In Late 2002, the San Diego EEO Council made a transformation in becoming the San Diego Industry Liaison Group (SDILG). This step linked the EEO Council with the United States Department of Labor, Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) and enabled a partnership between companies subject to AAP and Department of Labor (DOL) agencies.

This union provides our organization with a direct link to the DOL and a network of other ILGs across the country.

Our members are professionals from corporations, higher education, and non-profit organizations dedicated to the principles of EEO, affirmative action and diversity.
